ARMORY FINANCE GOAL IN SIGHT HERE

The Man Of The Month

ALLIN FOWLER MITCHELL
State Highway Commissioner

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

These very familiar words from our Declaration of Indenpedence are a credo of Allin Fowler Mitchell, the new member of our State Highway Commission. Those who know him, who know of his wide influence, the enduring qualities of his character, his tolerance and sympathy, and his great humility, feel that he is eminently qualified to take his place on this great Commission of our State's government.

Mr. Mitchell's formal education came from the schools of Harris County, Texas, A&M College, and Texas University. His much broader education and background came from Scotch ancestry which is noted for its Presbyterian preachers, men of medicine, Free Masons, engineers, and musicians; from his parents, the late John Field and Jane Gaillard Mitchell; from what he lived among and saw during his childhood which was spent at the homestead located on Mitchell's Bay near the present sight of the Humble Oil & Refining Company's great plant at Baytown.

By profession, Mr. Mitchell is a Civil Engineer. After being graduated from A&M College he engaged in hydraulic engineering in the Eagle Lake and Gulf Coast areas. Later he went into highway work, was county

Retired Fire Chief Died at House Door Texas Legislature

AUSTIN, April 4—Herman Diezi of Brenham, retired Houston fire chief and representative of the Texas Association of Fire Fighters, died here today.

Diezi collapsed at the door of the Senate chamber about 3:00 p. m. and was pronounced dead on arrival at Breckenridge hospital.

Diezi had been in the Senate gallery listening to debate on Senator Kyle Vick's bill setting up regulations for a firemen and policemen's civil service act.

COTTON CONTROL BY 1950 SAYS POAGE

DALLAS, April 5—Cotton acreage controls will be placed on farmers by 1950, Representative William R. Poage of Waco predicted today.

Poage, member of the House Agriculture Committee, spoke at the Texas Cotton Ginners Association convention here.

"Controls are almost certain," he said. "I see no way out of them unless we have a complete cotton crop failure this year."

The Representative said controls will hit Texas farmers hard unless the Government figures into this State's allotment the 1,700,000 acres of maize and peanuts diverted from cotton in 1946.

E. B. MARTIN FUNERAL FRIDAY

BURLINGTON PIONEER TO BE BURIED FRIDAY

E. B. Martin, 72, died at the family residence in Burlington at 8 a. m. Wednesday, March 6.

Mr. Martin had been ill for a long period of time. He had resided in Burlington for the past 26 years and although a native of Arkansas he had lived in Texas for many years.

Funeral services for the pioneer will be held from St. Michael's Catholic Church in Burlington at 9:30 a. m. Friday, March 8 by Father O'Reagan, Parish Priest and interment will be made in the catholic Cemetery in Burlington with the Nicholson Funeral Home in Rosebud directing arrangements.

The body of the pioneer would remain at the funeral home in Burlington until Thursday afternoon when it will be taken to the home in Burlington where Rosary Services will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Martin was born in the state of Arkansas on October 12, 1872 and came with his family to Texas when a young man, later settling at Burlington where he owned farming interests.

In Burlington he early identified himself with the progress of the community. In early life he devoted such time as circumstances permitted to acquiring knowledge and became in time one of the best informed men in his section. In the latter years he took an active interest in civic and political affairs and was deeply religious, a faithful member of his church.

His Irish ancestry made him an intense man, fearless and frank in his dealing with others and his genuine worth was reflected in his intellectual honesty and tolerance toward others. A strong Democrat he had followed the fortunes of the party for as long as he was eligible as a voter and his counsel was valued by all.

Mr. Martin belonged to an age that produced such men and to a time when men became stalwart; men who pioneered and made America great because they not only lived completely in their day but sought and succeeded in making the way better for those who came in their wake.

He is survived by his widow Mrs. Mary Martin, four sons and four daughters as follows: Joe Martin of Turnerstown, Texas; Hugh Martin of Burlington; John Martin of Tyler and Ed Martin of Corpus Christi; Mrs. Phil Krause of Burington; Mrs. Jack McKeene of Houston; Mrs. W. J. Matherne of Killeen; and Mrs. Leonard Dillenberg of San Antonio.

Three brothers survive as follows: Arthur Martin of Blum, Texas; Hugh Martin of New Orleans; and Leo Martin of Corpus Christi.

Wm. A. Sell Is Now Cashier Peoples Bank At Nocona, Texas

Friends in Cameron and at Buckholts will be glad to know that Wm. A. Sell has taken up his duties as Cashier of the Peoples National Bank at Nocona, Texas.

A letter from Mr. Sell to this newspaper says in part: "We look forward to receiving the paper each week. We are getting on well but miss our Milam county friends."

Mr. Sell was formerly with First National Bank in Cameron and also was cashier of the Buckholts State Bank. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sell will be glad to know they are well situated in their new location.

Nocona has a good business with oil, cattle and farm products out of the Red River valley. Nocona is the leather capital of the west and is famous for its boots and saddles and other leather goods.

Mr. Sell was elected to the Board of Directors of the bank in early January. He says the only Milam county man he has seen is Phillip Reid. Some years ago Mr. Reid moved to Dallas where he is also engaged in banking. Anyone who lives here and strays onto the Nocona range will be most welcome at the Peoples National Bank who are fortunate to have Mr. Sell.

Old Deed Uncovered In Right-of-Way Purchase On 77

An old deed dated 1888 from George B. Erath to his daughters Lucy and Lelia Erath, has come to light in perfecting titles to lands needed for right-of-way on Highway 77.

R. L. Henderson attorney of Waco, representing the estate of Lucy and Lelia Erath who lived in Waco, was here this week .

Mr. Henderson said that in all his experience in dealing with land titles he had never seen an abstract with as little detail. The estate owns 1280 acres of land near Burlington.

This land has never changed hands except to be deeded by the late George B. Erath to his daughters. The land was patented to Erath in September of 1841 by the state of Texas. Erath was a noted Texas figure, Indian fighter and hero of the Elm Creek and other battles. Erath county was named for him. He was an early day surveyor also, and surveyed out the city of Waco.

The 1888 deed was filed for record in Milam county in 1891. W. M. Gill was county clerk and Frank Clement of Thorndale was Deputy Clerk.

Leader Department Store Slates Pre-Easter Sale Here

The Leader Department Store, recently rennovated and with a modern tile and glass front on Main Street, has slated a pre-Easter sale that will be of interest to many buyers in the trade territory.

The store has laid in fresh stocks for the Easter trade and the prices quoted in this sales event will be an index to the bargains throughout the store in this event.

The Leader, popular trading place for many years, is one of the modern shops in Cameron since the new front was installed.

60,000 TURKEYS

GROWERS IN MEETING HERE SHOW PROGRESS

Turkey growers in the Cameron area indicated they will greatly increase production this year in their meeting held here.

A poll of 57 growers present indicated they will raise 26,000 turkeys. This is an increase over 1945 of more than 10,000.

It was said here that the production this year in Milam County should be around 60,000 but an enormous expansion will be necessary if this goal is reached.

D. C. Drummond reported he had raised 4,000 turkeys.

George McCarthy of Universal Mills addressed the growers on proper feeding and care of turkeys. About 150 attended the meeting it was reported by L. G. Smith, manager of Chamber of Commerce.

LIGHT VOTE IS CAST IN TUESDAY ELECTION

With only 275 votes cast Milton Schiller, Bob Terry and John C. Andres were elected to the Board of Aldermen in the city government Tuesday.

The vote: Andres 190; Schiller 175; Terry 162 and Horstmann 161.

Andres and Terry were returned to the board. Horstmann, veteran member of the government, was defeated. He has served as Chairman of the Street Committee for years.

Milton Schiller, young Cameron business man and associated in the Dodge and Plymouth Agency with his brother Jerry Schiller, is a new comer and will succeed Horstmann on the Council.

There were two significant write ins: Carroll Green, young Cameron business man, received 28 votes and Dan Gunn, well known business man received 24 votes.

So far as known the city will be governed according to the familiar pattern. There were no issues and no campaigns. Many people did not know about the election since newspaper publicity was lacking in comparison to former elections.

Some expressed the hope that the primary would be abolished. One election, they point out is enough for the city. Results have been negligible through the years. The city is still lacking adequate improvements in comparison to the annual tax toll.

Will we keep it like it is? Will we have change? That all depends for in August the city budget is set.

The Whitest Land And the Whitest People

We have a nice town in Texas whose greatest slogan is "The blackest land and the whitest people." But we have a community in Milam county (Hoyte) that has "the whitest land and the whitest people."

This community is looked on as being very poor but the people in it have a heart as big as a mule and as tender as a mother's love. At this time of year with nothing coming in, the larder is a little low and the diet may be largely "poke" and rabbit, but when a worthy cause comes along, brother, they will kick in.

That is why we are over the top and then some in the Red Cross contributions for which I wish to thank each and every one for their co-operation.

CHURCHILL PLEADS FOR DEMOCRATIC UNITY

BOSTON, March 31—But for the atomic bomb Europe would have been communized and London under bombardment, Winston Churchill said tonight.

Britain's war time premier bluntly accused the 14 men in the Kremlin of "aiming at the rule of the world" and charged they "fear the friendship of the west more than its hostility."

He described the "atomic bomb in the hands of the United States" as "the deterrent."

Churchill's widely heard remarks —broadcast throughout the country and overseas—were given in a speech at a mid-century convocation of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, whose scientists helped develop the atom bomb.

But "war is not inevitable," the 74-year-old British statesman told a distinguished audience of scientists, diplomats and educators in Boston Garden.

He added:

"We need not abandon hope or patience.

"Many favorable processes are on foot. Under the impact of communism all the free nations are being welded together as they never have been before and never could be, but for the harsh external pressure to which they are being subjected."

Over and again, Churchill said, "we have no hostility to the Russian people" and asserted:

"We seek nothing from Russia but goodwill and fair play."

But, he warned:

"If however, there is to be a war

GOAL IN SIGHT FIRST DAY OF CANVAS HERE

More than half the goal was in sight at 1 p. m. Wednesday in the special canvas to raise funds for the National Guard Armory site, it was reported from the Chamber of Commerce by L. G. Smith, manager.

Mr. Smith said that $2038 had been raised in 3 hours and that more than half the committees had not reported. It was confidently expected that the entire amount would be raised by the end of the day.

Also it was indicated that some of the business men were unavoidably out of the city and could not be seen. Other sections of the city were to be canvassed.

The Chamber was able to pay $3200 on the 20 acre site and assume responsibility for the remainder. The site cost $6000 and some additional must be raised to install utilities.

WINNIE HENDERSON IS TEACHERS PRESIDENT

Miss Winnie Henderson of Cameron was elected President of the Milam County Teachers Association Monday night in Milano.

Miss Henderson has been a member of the Cameron school faculty for a number of years and has been a leader in the association since its organization.

C. F. Bell, Superintendent of Sharp High School, was elected First Vice President and Mrs. Ruby Arledge, Superintendent of the Buckholts High School, was elected Second Vice President.

Mrs. Beatrice Weise of Cameron was eletced Secretary and R. L. Dedeke, Principal of the Milano High School was elected Treasurer.

Hinton H. Pruett, retiring President, presided over the meeting in Milano Tuesday night. A succession of introductory courtesies found Chas. M. Hicks, County Superintendent, introducing Mrs. Edrie Browder of the Milano faculty who in turn introduced Mrs. Fred Sloop of the A&M Consolidated School, guest speaker. Mrs. Sloop had with her 32 of her first grade students and their parents from Bryan.

The pupils gave a reading demonstration that was highly praised by teachers. These little 6 year old pupils read sentences readily which contained words like, demonstration, conservation, changeable, and numbers of others. These sentences had been prepared by the teachers of Milano school and the children had not seen them before. It was a worthwhile demonstration of teaching well done.

Officers were named on recommendation of a nominating committee as follows: C. M. Selman, Superintendent Rockdale Schools, Mrs. Jessie Bankston, Milano and Mrs. Adrie Kyle of Gause.

The Association will meet at Buckholts on October 3.

The Milano school did a fine job of entertaining. In all there were more than 200 present. The meeting was held in the spacious lunch room beautifully decorated on a scheme depicting the history and stories of Texas and Texans. A group of 10 grade school girls sang Texas songs and Jimmie Robihson gave a very humorous monologue on the subject "why I like to be a Texan."

The teachers were loud in their praise of the hospitality of the Milano school. At the close delicious refreshments were served by the Milano school faculty.

ATTEMPTED RAPE ON TEEN-AGE GIRL OF GAUSE

Jimmy Smyth of Hearne is being held in Milam County jail charged with rape by force. The offence is alleged to have been committed on the night of March 22 on a teen-age girl who resides with her parents at Gause.

The facts as developed before an investigation before a court of inquiry held in the office of Judge Ed Gunn, County attorney shows that on the above named date the young man charged, called at the home of the girl in Gause and escorted the family to a wedding held in that city.

Returning from the wedding about 8 o'clock Smyth asked permission to take the girl to a picture show in Hearne, the mother giving her consent. The couple after reaching highway 79 turned westward toward Milano. She informed her escort that that was not the way to Hearne but he presisted in continuing and informed the girl that they would go to Caldwell to attend a dance at the "Old Corral".

The young woman said they spent about an hour and a half at the place of amusement and left, coming back on highway 36 to where it would join highway 79 just east of Milano, and after driving several miles north toward Milano Smyth turned his car on a side road and parked it within 50 yards off the highway.

According to the young girls testamony he began making improper advances, to which she protested. Continuing his forceful attack on her and in the scuffle she opened the door and fell out of the car, the young man falling out also where he continued his criminal attack by force.

After freeing herself the girl fled from the place back to the highway and attempted to flag a car passing and being unsuccessful she fled to a barn located some distance from the road where she concealed herself. After an apparent attempt to locate her, Smyth turned toward Caldwell and disappeared.

After walking some distance up the highway toward Milano the girl flagged a large truck and requested the drived to take her to Gause and from Gause she made her way home.

Grasshopper Plague In Texas Seen

The greedy grasshopper will be around in a great, if not greater, force than last year to plague Texas farmers and ranchers.

The prediction is based on egg counts made by workers of the United States Department of Agriculture Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine Grasshopper Control.

J. M. Landrum, who directs United States Department of Agriculture control activities for Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, points out that 1949 is the last year of the 10-year grasshopper cycle.

Texas, which had plenty of trouble last year fighting the crop-eating insect, is ravaged by two types of grasshoppers. Foremost is the differential, a big yellow hopper marked by sergeant stripes on his legs. The other is the migratory grasshopper.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bartlett of Rockdale have announced the arrival of a seven pound, four ounce daughter born, March 20, 1949, at Newton Memorial Hospital. She has been named Patricia Zoe. The Bartletts also have another daughter, Nedra who is two years old.

MARCH BUILDING HERE SHOWS UPWARD SWING

Building permits issued in the month of March in the city of Cameron totaled $17,050 according to W. H. Stafford, city secretary.

The March total was much larger than the February total and the upswing indicated that Cameron may have another good year in building.

Mr. Stafford said that the permits show that two residences, one for $5500 and the other $4000 acounted for a major part of the permit total. One small building in Santa Fe town was in the permits.

Permits for 1949 are far below the figure for 1948 for the same period. Increased available building materials and good weather forecast a good year in building.

UNITED NATIONS DEAD IS VIEW OF MANY

Twelve powers including the United States, France and Britain, signed the Atlantic Defense Alliance at 2 p. m. Monday in Washington.

President Truman in the principal address hailed the new treaty as a guarantee of safety against agression and makes for peace.

Soviet Russia through Andrei Gromyko, was expected to protest the alliance before the United Nations to meet next week in New York.

Competent observers were certain that the Alliance means the death of the United Nations, launched by President Truman shortly after the surrender of Japan in 1945. Thus twice in less than 3 decades has a proposed concert of nations failed to achieve peace in the world.

Soviet Russia has deliberately killed the United Nations and there was little inclination to hide the import of the new concert of Western Powers now signatories to the Atlantic Pact.

The Atlantic Pact signed to-day in Washington will not be worth the paper it is written on unless the United States agrees to go to war in case of an attack upon any one of the powers who sign the treaty.

Since Congress alone has the power to declare war there would be no formal declaration unless formally carried out by Congress. However, armed forces might be so disposed in such an emergency as to constitute actual waging of war without the necessity of a formal declaration.

Once President Truman approves it, state department officials expect to discuss it with congressional leaders.

Secretary Acheson contends that the treaty itself makes no commitment on the United States to furnish arms to Europe.

However, American and other diplomats agree that the peoples of western Europe confidently expect that American arms will begin to flow to the Atlantic pact countries within a few weeks after the treaty goes into force.

Diplomats here are by no means in agreement on what Russia's reaction to the new Western setup will be. Some believe that the Kremlin may content itself with denunciations of the pact.

However, the treaty will create a new situation. Most diplomats believe the Russians must cope with it either by adjusting their policies to a new line or taking action designed to disrupt the treaty or offset its effects.

The expressed hope of Bevin and Acheson among others is that the man in the Kremlin, seeing the lineup of Western nations, will decide that Russia must count on living within its borders and zones of influence.

But many experts here believe the Russians will try force as well as oratory to test the strength and effectiveness of the new arrangement. Speculation is that they will challenge it indirectly.

ATLANTIC DEFENSE IS SET UP IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, April 4 — Amid solemn diplomatic pageantry, 12 North Atlantic nations today signed a treaty designed to confront any Russian aggression with a united defense.

After hearing President Truman hail it as a "shield against aggression," the foreign ministers stepped up one by one to put their names to the historic 1,040-word pact.

Previously they, like Mr. Truman, had proclaimed to Russia and all the world that their only purpose was peace and security.

But servers of them added blunt warnings to any nation contemplating violence. Britain's foreign minister, Ernest Bevin, declared:

"Our peoples do not want war and do not glorify war, but they will not shrink from it if aggression is threatened."

Secretary of State Dean Acheson drew on the Bible. "For those who set their feet upon the path of aggression," he said, "it (the pact) is a warning that if it must needs be that offenses come, then woe unto them by whom the offense cometh."

Many members of the senate which must have the treaty with a two-thirds vote before it can go into effect, witnessed the signing.

Mr. Truman spoke after each of the visiting foreign ministers and Secretary Acheson stepped forward to the flag-bedecked platform to make brief addresses. Then came the actual signing. Belgium's foreign minister, Paul-Henri Spaak, was the first to put his name down. The others followed in alphabetical order—representatives of Canada, Denmark, France, Iceland, Italy, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, the United Kingdom, and the United States.

Projecting American defense frontiers into the heart of Europe, the treaty would pledge all 12 nations to take measures to resist an attack on any of them. It becomes effective only when ratified by the United States and the other original sponsors. These are Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Mr. Truman termed "absolutely untrue the charge that the treaty is aggressive in intent, a charge which Russia made in formal notes on the eve of the signing.

"The pact will be a positive, not a negative, influence for peace, and its influence will be felt not only in the area it specifically covers, but throughout the world," he declared.

"Twice in recent years, nations have felt the sickening blow unprovoked aggression," he went on. "Our peoples, to whom our governments are responsible, demand that these things shall not happen again. We are determined that they shall not happen again".

He said that in the pact "we hope to create a shield against aggression and the fear of aggression—a bulwark which will permit us to get on with the real business of government and society, the business of achieving a fuller and happier life for our citizens."

By contrast with the western nations, who unite despite differing governmental and economic systems, the "police state" tries to achieve unity and a rule of force on everyone, he said. At no time did he name Russia, however.

Acheson spoke at the start of the two hour ceremony and introduced the others.

Belgium's Spaak said the treaty should "disturb no one, save, of course, any person or persons who might foster the criminal idea of having recourse to war."

NEAR 60 MILLIONS ON JOB IN WORK WAVE

The nation's employment problem took a brighter turn today as the government reported the jobless total fell off 54,000 in March for the first decline in five months.

At the same time the census bureau said the number of people having jobs last month increased 480,000 over the February estimates.

(The increase in the number of persons having jobs was greater than the decrease in unemployment because there was a rise in the "labor force". The labor force as defined by the government, consists of people having work, or looking for work. The number in the force rose from 60,386,000 in February to 60,814,00 in March.)

These are the new totals of unemployed and employed:

Unemployed—3,167,000

Employed—57,657,000

Government officials were surprised—and pleased—by the upturn in the work picture. Secretary of Commerce Sawyer told reporters after a White House cabinet meeting that he thinks the upward trend unemployment has been stopped.

The census bureau itself spoke of the development as showing that the rising jobless trend has been halted "at least temporarily". Despite the decline last month it said the total still was 727,000 higher than in March 1948.

It explained the apparently favorable showing in these words:

"A seasonal expansion in employment in agriculture and some other industries apparently counterbalanced the effect of further lay-offs in other sectors of the economy."

The bureau of employment security meanwhile, reported a drop in the number of workers drawing unemployment compensation.

Temple Goes Back To Street Working By Citizens 18 to 45

The city commission has solved the problem of getting the Temple streets repaired by passing an ordinance requiring every man in the city between the ages of 18 and 45 to work on the streets three days a year.

If the men fail to do the work under the ordinance they are subject to a fine of $5 and if they ignore the work or the cash outing officers are instructed to arrest the men and assess a fine of $10.

The city is taking this means to improve the streets, one of the signers of the document said last night, and the men are required to furnish their own tools for the work.

No man is exempt from the ordinance, the spokesman said.

Remember the date, April 1.

The ordinance was passed on Jan. 1, 1906, by the Temple city commission, and so far as is known it has not been repealed.—Temple Telegram

RADIOS AND CARS IN VAN OF NEW CUTS

The great American consumer had set before him Wednesday a menu with retail price cuts that forecast a welcome tumble in reduced costs.

Radios and automobiles were in the van of the new cuts as Kaiser-Frazer Corporation knocked $98 to $333 off its car prices. Ford price cuts were forecast by Henry Ford, II, President of Ford Motor Company who said he saw a "possible reduction."

Radios showed the biggest decline Westinghouse Electric cut from 20 to 50 per cent off nine home model sets, as much as $130 on some sets on a cash basis.

In the basic commodities like lead, zinc, copper and steel reductions indicated that further declines might be in the offing on manufactured items.

Steel showed some decline but on the whole the basic metal was ruling firm.

Standard Oil Company of Indiana reduced kerosene, range oil and diesel fuels 1c a gallon from tank prices. Ice cream in Philadelphia was down 3 cents a quart.

House Panel OK's Sale of Products Made at Prison

A Senate bill authorizing the sale of prison-made products was approved by a House committe in Austin Wednesday after it was amended to prevent any competition with private business.

"The prison system has never had any idea of competing with private industry," O. B. Ellis, general manager of the Texas Prison System, told the House penitentiaries committee.

The committee vote recommending passage was unanimous.

If the bill is passed by the Legislature and signed by the governor it will allow the penitentiary system to sell its products and produce to other state departments, boards, commissions and institutions. The amendment adopted Wednesday removed a section which would allow sale of products to cities, counties and school districts.

The bill is one of nine measures asked by the prison board and recommended by the governor in a plan to rehabilitate the prison system

EASTER SEAL SALE IS MAKING BIG PROGRESS

The largest Easter Seal Sale in the history of the Texas Society for Crippled Childern has been launched with the mailing of more than 1,000,000 sheets of the seals in Texas. This is exclusive of the 1,500,000 school packets which are purchased by children.

The Texas Society for Crippled Children entered the 16th annual Easter Seal Sale with 125 organized county affiliates, according to Martin M. Ricker, executive director. In all of these counties, 91.8 per cent of the money derived from the sale remains to care for local children. In the unorganized counties, where the Texas Society renders direct aid, the Easter Seal Sale was assisted by volunteer workers from the Dallas Women's Forum who stuffed and addressed the Easter Seal envelopes.

In a letter announcing the 1949 Easter Seal Sale, president Roscoe L. Thomas of Dallas points out some of the year's accomplishments of the Society. Through special legislation sponsored by the Texas Society, Special Education offers educational opportunities to 11,000 children, who, because of physical disabilities, are unable to attend regular school; Rehabilitation teaches trades and business to 2,000 handicapped; Hospitalization and Medical Care have been provided 7,500 less fortunate children; Transportation was furnished 80 children who did not have the means to travel to medical centers; there are 14 Cerebral Palsy Treatment Centers in which 1,113 children are being started on the road to a more normal life.

Practice Soil Conservation...

for the betterment of our lands

The erosion of the soil is far more serious than any other agricultural problem or problems we face today.

Texas economy depends upon its agricultural industries. Soil utilization for the production of crops and native vegetation yielded nearly all of the Texas income until the beginning of the present century, and today, either directly or indirectly, they are vital to our livelihood.

The prevention of soil erosion is not an easy job. There are about 130 soil series with approximately 500 types in the state and they range through every textural class, color and combination of colors. The widely differing characteristics and features of the soil require individual and special soil conservation measures for greater productivity.

Some of the present soil conservation practices being applied on farms and ranches, depending on the needs and capabilities of the land, include contour planting, the planting of cover crops, turning under of crop residue, construction of terraces, installation of drainage systems in land subject to floods, crop rotation, deferred and regulated grazing, planting, improving and protecting woodlands, stubble mulching, strip-cropping, establishing permanent pastures, treating of gullies and many others.

Where proper soil conservation practices have been in effect for two years, per-acre increase yields has amounted to 39% and the increase in range production as much as 13%.

Texas Power & Light Company is solidly behind the soil conservation program. Since the introduction of the state's first high-voltage transmission lines in 1913, this Company has worked ceaselessly for a higher standard of living on the farms and ranches, and for greater community welfare. TP&L's Conservationist, together with the state and county conservationists, are eager to help you start a soil conservation program . . . so, let's join hands and work together for the betterment of our lands.

4 CANDIDATES AND 3 PLACES TO BE FILLED

Cameron was voting for the first time in years with competition in Aldermen's race in an off political year .

When the local Democratic Executive Committee abandoned the preferential primary years ago in the odd years the April ballot became an open one so far as rock-ribbed Cameron was concerned.

However, years passed without competition but this year there are 4 candidates and 3 places to fill.

The voting was light in the forenoon but was expected to get more brisk as the day wore on.

The candidates are August Horstmann, John C. Andres and Bob Terry, all members of the Council, and Milton Schiller, new comer who threw his hat in the ring for a try at the polls.

Neither of the candidates offered a platform and there were no issues. The election was due to be a tame affair.

LEON RIVER DAM WILL GET MONEY ALLOTTED

The amount of money will be allotted to the Leon river dam for construction in the next fiscal year starting July 1 could not be definitely determined but indications were that it may be substantially close to the $2,000,000 requested, Rep. W. R. Poage, 11th district, said in Washington.

A 15 per cent cut across the board on all flood control projects was announced by the House appropriations committee. Army engineers termed it around 25 per cent. However, the amount of cut will be determined later. In some instances where projects were in the budget the President, there may be no cuts, a committee clerk said. Leon river was in the budget requirements, at the full $2,000,000.

The committee said that its action in cutting the funds was taken in anticipation of lower construction costs, but did not fix the reductions on specific projects because it felt costs might decline more in some parts of the country than in others.

Poage said it may be some time yet before the definite appropriation is known.

When the project was under consideration, Brig. Gen. Peter Feringa told the committee that the project would "afford complete protection from floods to the Leon river valley, about 6,135 acres, and will assist materially in reducing the frequent flooding of the Little river valley, 60,080 acres. It will also assist in controlling floods in the Brazos river valley wherein are about 1,053,000 acres subject to flooding."

A top official in the army engineers, rivers and harbors section said tonight: "It will be several days at least before we can tell what projects will get what amounts of money. It is the first time the committee has not broken down expenditures project by project in my experience.

Congress appropriated $500,000 this fiscal year to start construction on the Leon project. No contracts have yet been made by the army engineers with this money, but it is anticipated that it will be under contract before the end of the fiscal year.

Strawberry Plant Responds Well to Magic Soil Here

As a usual thing, in less fertile lands of course, strawberries grow on vines.

Well, they grow on vines here better than most places and just to demonstrate the feats of the Magic Soil Belt of which Cameron is the center, we have strawberries that grow in the ground and from the berry the vine grows.

Don't believe it?

Mrs. Roy Richards who lives at 204 West Third Street brought one to The Herald in a small can filled with dirt. The ripe berry is exposed and the vine grows from the berry.

You can see this most unusual sight at The Herald. Shut away from the good earth it may not last long in the surcharged atmosphere of an editorial room, but it all goes to prove what The Herald said years ago, coining the phrase "Magic Soil Belt."

Pope Ingram of Houston visited his parents in Cameron this week. Mr. Ingram is with the Coca-Cola Bottling Company in Houston.

What does Easter mean to you? Sunrise Services . . . new spring clothes, baskets of gaily colored eggs for the children?

It means that Easter Seal time is here again, too. It means that through these seals you'll be helping crippled children in your own community to a better chance in life.

It's used to give them specialized vocational training . . . healthful recreation . . . a chance to go to camp in the summer . . . to swim and romp and play games like other kids.

So why not celebrate this Easter by buying more Easter Seals. Remember,

Every Easter Seal you buy helps a Crippled Child

NEW FORMULA TO KILL HOPPERS ANNOUNCED

Watch out for the grasshoppers the first part of April advises J. D. Moore, County Agent. The hoppers should start hatching out along the fence rows and ditch banks during April if the weather continues favorable. Bran sawdust bait will not be distributed in Milam county this year. The new insecticides give a quicker kill and continue to kill longer than the standard bran bait. They are most effective when used on weeds along roadsides, fence rows, ditch banks, and pastures or waste land where the grasshoppers have hatched.

DOSAGE TO USE—Chlordane and toxaphene may be used either as a spray or dust. Sprays in general are more effective than dusts and kill for a longer time. When applying sprays use 1 pound technical chlordane or 1 1-2 pounds technical toxaphene per acre. To spray one acre 50 to 100 gallons of spray will be needed, depending upon the type of spray machine used. The following dilutions should be used:

Chlordane—Use - quart 45 per cent emulsion or 2 pounds 50 per cent wettable powder per 50 to 100 gallons water to spray one acre.

Toxaphene—Use 1 qaurt 55 per cent emulsion or 2 1-2 pounds 40 per cent wettable powder per 50 to 100 gallons water to spray one acre.

When using dusts apply 1 1-2 pounds of either technical toxaphene or chlordane per acre when grasshoppers are small. As grasshoppers grow larger the dosage must be increased for either toxaphene or chlordane. When grasshoppers are small use 15 pounds per acre of either 10 per cent toxaphene or chlordane dust. When grasshoppers are larger increase the dosage to 18 or 20 pounds per acre, or use 10 pounds of 20 per cent toxaphene per acre.

Time for application—If these new insecticides are to be effective they must be applied at the right time and in the right places. Watch for dangerous infestations of young grasshoppers on fence rows, ditch banks, pastures or waste land near cultivated crops. Spray or dust these infestations as soon as hatching is complete. In general this will be about 7 to 10 days after the first young grasshoppers appear and before they begin to spread to other areas including cultivated crops. At this time comparatively small areas will need to be treated and the small grasshoppers are easy to kill. Do not wait until they move into cultivated crops.

When alfalfa fields are infested it is most economical to cut the alfalfa and apply control measures to protect the next crop. After the alfalfa is cut spray or dust the field margins, or leave uncut strips of alfalfa where the grasshoppers will concentrate after the first crop is removed.

Precautions—Do not feed forage treated with these new insecticides to dairy cattle or to animals being finished for slaughter. The same applies to treated pastures. At dosages recommended there is apparently no immediate danger to the animals being fed or pastured, but these insecticides may accululate in the fatty tissues of the animals and are given off in the milk and butterfat. Animals fed for long periods on treated forage may accumulate enough of these chemicals to make meat and dairy products unfit for human food.

Avoid applying these insecticides to legumes in bloom to prevent poisoning bees. Bees are essential for pollination and should be protected when possible. Sprays are less harmful to bees than dusts.

Truman Aid Plan Held Due to Fail

A survey indicated Wednesday the House Ways and Means Committee will turn down President Truman's proposal for direct federal help (home relief) for all needy persons.

One of Truman's closest friends on Capitol Hill told reporters the proposal "is as good as dead." One committeeman estimated at least 17 of the 25 members will oppose payments to persons able to work.

The federal government now is spending $1,100,000,000 a year in a money-matching arrangement with the states to provide financial aid for the needy aged, the blind and dependent children.

Arthur J. Altmeyer, social security commissioner, told the committee the immediate cost of expanding the so-called home relief program to all needy would run from $200,000,000 to $250,000,000 a year.

Dental Examination For School Children To Begin April 7th

The dental examination is intended to inform the parents of the existing condition of the childs mouth and teeth.

The examination will be made only on grade school children at this time because the younger children are the ones that most urgently need this attention.

The dentists of Rockdale will examine the school children in their area in the near future also.

FATE OF SCHOOL BILL HANGS IN BALANCE

Hostile House members to-day dealt a punishing blow to the solar plexus of a Gilmer-Aikin bill which would abolish the position of State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Enemies of the bill first used stalling tactics to keep it off the House floor and then won a vote of 73 to 67 to adjourn until tomorrow morning. They said it was a good test of their strength.

Proponents, whose leaders voted against adjournment said it didn't mean anything because the first of the bills will be on top of the calendar again tomorrow morning.

The initial measure drastically revamping the school system, Senate Bill 115, was calendar-high today too. But the House managed to do everything but debate it.

Representative Miller Walker of Beaumont, who moved for adjournment, said he would introduce a resolution tomorrow to postpone consideration of the Gilmer-Aikin educational program until a special session.

Senator James E. Taylor of Kerens, chairman of the Gilmer-Aikin Committee and author of the bill, protested that action was needed now.

RESPONSE PLEASING TO COMMITTEE WORKERS

Cameron business men will have an unusual opportunity to share in a major progress step Wednesday at a cost said to be an all time low in comparison to actual benefits.

The occasion will be the canvas to raise about $3000 for a site for the National Guard Armory on which a $45,000 building is to be erected at once and ultimately an armory to cost around $300,000.

Early Monday the central Committee to raise finances for the site expressed complete satisfaction over response made following announcement that the army had been secured for Cameron.

Already a number of contributions have been placed with the committee in advance of the formal canvas to begin at 8 a. m. Wednesday.

O. B. Horstmann, Henry Siebman and Bill McIntosh, the finance committee, said early Monday that some 30 men would be utilized with the subscription lists and that the canvas would begin promptly at 8 a. m. Wednesday and all committees would assemble at the Chamber of Commerce.

Already the Chamber of Commerce had paid $3200 on the $6000 site. The money came from a residue in the Centennial Fund.

The balance of the money must be raised and paid to E. H. Boedeker who executed a warranty deed to 20 acres of land so that the government might not be delayed in construction of the first unit of the armory, a maintenance shop to cost $45,000.

A small additional requirement for installation of utilities and sanitary accommodations at the site, will be necessary but will be small in any event.

The plan is to raise the money in one day, preferably between the hours of 8 a. m. and 11 a. m.

48 IN CAMERON WITH LIGHT RAIN FRIDAY

Cameron received .34 inches of rain Friday night and had a low of 48 degrees to share in the freakish weather that brought snow, freezing and thunder storms to Texas.

In the Texas Panhandle one death had resulted from travel on snow covered highways. The cold wave in the Panhandle amounted to almost blizard severity with sleet storms rain and hail to open the month of April with back lash of winter weather.

Further west the storm was more severe with temperatures ranging from freezing to almost zero. In South Texas heavy rains, winds and electrical storms caused considerable damage and power failures at Corpus Christi. Dalhart had 2 inches of snow.

The forecast for Sunday is slowly rising temperatures and clearing skies but continuing cool.

Indications were that spring weather might prevail in Central Texas at the begining of the new week and this will be most welcome because farmers need sunshine.

Mrs. Clifford Swift, Mrs. J. L. Callaway, Mrs. Bill Burns and Mrs. Lester Williams shopped in Waco Wednesday.

THE HOUSE SHELVES VET PENSION BILL

By a one-vote margin, the House Thursday shelved the Rankin veterans' pension bill in Washington.

A roll-call vote of 208 to 207 sent the measure back to the veterans committee for further study.

It is possible for the veterans' committee to write a new bill and send it back to the House at a later date.

But Chairman Rankin told the House the vote to recommit meant that the bill is dead.

"That kills this legislation for this Congress," Rankin said.

Rankin's bill already had been so amended that it bore little resemblance to his original proposal for $90 a month pensions at age of 65 to all World War I and World War II veterans.

The vote to throw it back to committee climaxed a series of maneuvers on the floor.

Representative Teague of Texas made the motion to send it back.

The roll call vote was first announced as 209 to 208 against the motion.

But on a recount, it developed that the tabulators had erred on the first count.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tallent of Dallas were in Cameron Sunday. They are former residents of Burlington. Mr. Talent came here to consult Dr. W. R. Newton and was at the hospital Sunday for several hours. He has been a patient of Dr. Newton for some time. Mr. Tallent, formerly with the transportation Company in Dallas, is now a prominent real estate operator there.

CAMERON APPRECIATES VALUE OF IMPROVEMENT

Normally nobody gets excited about a subscription list, in fact they are rather common place in a community that must rely on the generosity of its citizens to finance civic projects.

However, the subscription list for the National Guard Armory site, is something different, and on the eve of the solicitation campaign, there was every indication that the money would be raised in a jiffy. In fact some has already come in. People just could not wait for a committee to come around.

You see, it is like this: For the small sum of $3000 or more the city is going to get 20 acres of land and immediately a building that will cost about $45,000. In a little while the city will get a National Guard Armory building that will cost about $300,000. None of which will cost the people here anything.

The Chamber of Commerce had some $3200 to pay down on the site and due to the faith of E. H. Boedeker the land was turned over by warranty deed to the government immediately. Mr. Boedeker will now receive the balance due him on the site which will be about $3000.

In addition the Chamber must raise a few hundred to pay for utility installation and sanitary accommodations.

L. G. Smith, Manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said Tuesday that public response had been most gratifying.

The committee: O. B. Horstmann, Henry Siebman and Bill McIntosh, were to meet all workers at 8 a. m. Wednesday and the canvas of the city will be made Wednesday. It is planned to raise this money in one day, preferably in a matter of hours.

The response would serve a double purpose for it indicates that business men are willing and anxious to support anything that pays off. Certainly this is the biggest bargain the city has had in a long period of time.

It is a privilege to pay out our money on a matter of this importance. It is not only a bargain but an investment in progress. Yes, we will take up that obligation in short order Wednesday. Don't leave your place of business until after the committee had called on you. They will indicate the amount you will be asked to give. It is all figured out and if you pay the amount assessed as a suggestion, all will be well.

Let's prove we know a good think when we see it.

engineer for the State Highway Department.

In the first World War, Allin Mitchell volunteered for service with the U. S. Army Air Forces, was commissioned a pursuit pilot and served in the European theater for the duration. He is a cousin of the late Major General Billy Mitchell.

In 1934 Mr. Mitchell retired from highway work to devote his time to personal business and consulting engineering.

In 1939 A. F. Mitchell was appointed by Governor O'Daniel to a place on the State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers. Six years later, he was reappointed to this outstanding board by Governor Stevenson, and when he accepted Governor Jester's appointment as a member of the highway commission on January 1, 1949, with deep regret his resignation as a member of the influential professional board was accepted. During his 10 years on the registration board, he twice served as its Chairman, and his leadership was in a large measure responsible for the strengthening of the engineering license law and gaining additional recognition in the State and Nation for this board.

Mr. Mitchell is a past president of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers, which organization is indebted to him for his extensive labors in its affairs. He has served the National Society of Professional Engineers in executive capacity, and this organization expressed appreciation of his executive ability and leadership and the prestige which his connection brought to the National engineers.

Allin Mitchell is an honored Aggie, As an executive of the Student Loan Fund for the past 14 years, he has proved so capable an administrator that the fund has greatly increased. He was the first Chairman of the College's Development Fund, and his ideas for scholarships and his contributions to make them a reality have greatly aided the advancement of A&M College in this important field.

Mr. Mitchell is a man of many parts. His name appears upon the roster of many civic organizations, directorates and foundations. He is interested in American Legion activities, has served as Commander of local posts and State and National executive committees. For 14 years he has been Chairman of the Navarro County Crippled Children's Association. He was County Chairman of the Red Cross for 4 years. He was Chairman of the First War Bond Drive for the Sixth Congressional District of Texas, and City Chairman for succeeding War Loans. He also serves in executive capacity the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce, Family Service, Camp Fire Girls and Boy Scouts. He was an organizer and is a director of the Texas State Water Conservation Association.

A. F. Mitchell is a 32nd Degree Mason and Shriner, a Ruling Elder in the Presbyterian Church, U. S. He is a world traveler. He is engaged in extensive oil operations, farming, and ranching throughout Texas and in Louisiana, Kansas, and Florida. Valuable real estate and business engineer in Central and South Texas counties, served 12 years as resident properties in the Houston and Bay area are his, because he believes that financial panics may come and go, but a good piece of real estate is durable.

Mr. Mitchell believes that free enterprise has made America great. He believes in the right of labor to organize. He believes in "equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

This new highway commissioner has a sense of humor about others and about himself; and a keen sense of humor is a reflection of a keen mentality. He is a peerless storyteller, and it has been said that he collects stories as others collect stamps and various other things.

Voltaire says to be great a man must possess great virtues. By this standard, Allin Mitchell is a great man. It is good fortune for Texas that he has accepted to serve again; and the State is assured a conservative, prudent, and farsighted leadership from Highway Commisisoner, Engineer Mitchell, from Corsicana, Texas.

of nerves, let us make sure our nerves are strong and are fortified by the deepest convictions of our hearts."

"If we persevere steadfastly together, and allow no appeasement of tyranny and wrong-doing in any form, it may not be our nerve or the structure of our civilization which will break, and peace may yet be preserved."

While calling these times as "darkling hour," Churchill heralded the Marshall plan, the "new unity in western Europe" and the Atlantic pact.

He said:

"No one could, however, have brought about these immense changes in the feeling of the United States, Great Britain and Europe but for the astounding policy of the Russian Soviet government."

"We may well ask," said Churchill, "Why have they deliberately acted so as to unite the free world against them?"

"It is certainly not because there are not very able men among them. Why have they done it?"

And, then Churchill offered what he called his own answer to "this strange conundrum."

"It is because they fear the friendship of the west more than its hostility.

"They cannot afford to allow free and friendly intercourse to grow up between the vast area they control and the civilization of the west.

"The Russian people must not see what goes on outside, and the world must not see what goes on inside the Soviet domain."

"Fourteen men in the Kremlin, holding down hundreds of millions of people and aiming at the rule of the world, feel that at all costs they must keep up the barriers.

"Self preservation not for Russia but for themselves, lies at the root and is the explanation of their sinister and malignant policy."

$1050 Contributed On Armory Site Before Canvass Opened Here

On the eve of the opening of the canvas for funds to pay for the National Guard Armory site, the committee had $1050 in hand from contributions that came in before the committee began its work.

This may be an unpercedented interest and leaders here were pleased. The people have shown that they appreciate the value of this progress and were willing to pay and the advance contributions were heavy, amounting to approximately one quarter of the amount needed.

L. G. Smith, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, disclosed a deposit slip on Citizens National Bank with the following contributions:

J. C. Penney Company $100.00; Citizens National Bank $200.00; Cameron Fruit & Grocery Co., $100.00; McLane Company, Wholesale Grocers $100.00; Hefley-Stedman Motor Co., $100.00; Cameron Rotary Club $100.00; Culpepper's $100.00; Cheeves Bros., $50.00; Ideal Hatchery & Poultry Farm $50.00; Grabein Chevrolet Company $50.00; Cameron Ice & Cold Storage Company $50.00; Ray and Berniece Lester $50.00.

Bell County To Vote On Super-Highway Tuesday, May 10th

BELTON, April 5—May 10 was set as the date of the bond issue election for the purchase of right-of-way for a four-lane super-highway through Bell County at a special meeting of the Bell County Commissioners' Court Monday. The election was called upon petition of more than 1,900 residents of a special road district that has been established, extending about two miles on each side of the present Highway 81.

The election is to determine whether or not bonds of the road district shall be issued in a sum not to exceed $1,000,000 for the purchase of right-of-way. Date of maturity of the bonds is not to exceed 30 years and rate of interest will not exceed 4 per cent according to provisions of the court order.

The order designated voting places in the district and named election judges and clerks.

Strange Behavior Of Fox Leads Farmer To Suspect Rabies

F. A. Abel of Sharp was in Cameron Monday morning and told of the strange behavior of a fox which he killed near his hen house around 7:30 a. m.

Mr. Abel said he was attracted by a noise among the hens and went out to investigate. Near the house he saw a fox lying down. He had no gun with him. He saw a scantling near by but thought surely the fox would escape. Instead the fox moved over near a feed mill and lay down again.

As Mr. Abel sought to kill the fox it got up and moved in his direction as if intending to attack. One blow killed the fox.

Mr. Abel said he was going to have the head examined since he feared rabies, and fox have been discovered with the disease in this county.

He said the fox was heavily infested with ticks and may have been sick. Recently he said fox hunters have been active in that section of the county but did not believe the fox was tired from a night chase. Instead he believes the fox was after a hen since it appeared rather poor and needed food.

Sheriff G. H. Kyle and wife of Pampa stopped in Cameron for a short visit with Sheriff Carl Black Tuesday. They were on their way home from Rockdale where they had visited relatives.

Cocoanut Pie From Grady Allen Delights Hungry Publisher

A cocoanut pie fresh from the oven at the Grady Allen home was set before a hungry publisher Thursday, like manna from Heaven.

There are pies and then there are pies, but nothing quite equals a good cocoanut pie and this one is excellent, baked by Mrs. Allen on request of the District Clerk.

The gourmet may rave over his tidbits but for downright good eating the luscious delight of a cocoanut pie has never been equaled. If Harry would give joe a cocoanut pie there would be no war.
